

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT of STATE

RON DESANTIS
Governor

CORD BYRD
Secretary of State

June 4, 2025
(via email)

The Honorable Vicki Davis
Supervisor of Elections for Martin County
135 SE Martin Luther King, Jr. Blvd.
Stuart, FL 34994

RE: Mail Ballot Election –Village of Indiantown

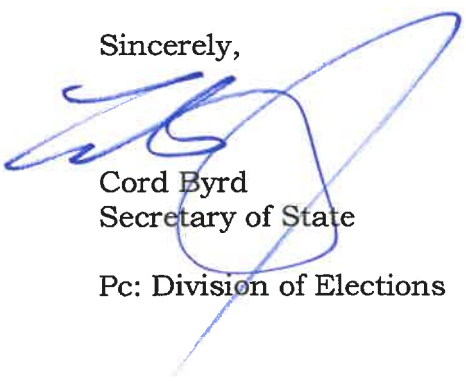

Dear Supervisor Davis:

Pursuant to section 101.6102, Florida Statutes, we hereby approve the written plan submitted to hold a mail ballot election for an ad valorem tax for new businesses & expansion of existing businesses.

The written plan and the supporting documentation show that the governing body, with concurrence of the Supervisor of Elections, has approved this election. Please note that the scope of our review and approval is based upon the plan submitted and activities from that date forward for compliance with the requirements for conducting a mail ballot pursuant to sections 101.6101-101.6107, Florida Statutes.

Please note that all other matters as to the nature of the [a e.g., annexation, referendum, local option, etc.] including, but not limited to, the content and format of the questions on the ballot lie outside the Florida Election Code. Please consult the county attorney as needed or appropriate. Please let us know if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Cord Byrd
Secretary of State

Pc: Division of Elections